Monster Bubbles Incursion

Dear Parents,

Thanks to Mel Evans (Holly's mum) we are having an incursion by Dr Froth the Bubble Man. Mel applied and won a grant from the State Government to help celebrate International Day of People with Disability.

Kindy, PP and Year 1 students will each be entertained in a 40 min session by bubble-ologist Dr Froth who will create a gorgeous spectacle of some of the biggest bubbles in the world. It will be on Friday 4th December

About the Presenter

Andrew Suttar (aka Dr. Froth) is Australia's foremost bubble expert and original "bubble-ologist". His entire 25+ year career has been solely in bubbles, and it all started with a high-school science project.

If you get the chance, please thank Mel for her generosity in organising the grant and the incursion.

There is no cost involved but please return the permission slip by Wednesday 2 December.

Any queries please don't hesitate to contact me.

Regards

Annette Bailey
