Harmony Week Incursion

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

At Attadale Primary School we continue to celebrate the cultural diversity within our school community.

This year, we will participate in the National Harmony Week celebrations, marking the 20 year anniversary of nationwide participation.

After last year’s success, we are excited to offer this incursion for Years 1 – 6 on Thursday March 18, presented by the Perth Arts Company.

Suitcase Stories

‘Suitcase Stories’ is a 50-minute show that celebrates the cultural diversity of Australia. It features tales from a number of migrants to Australia, who we meet as likeable individuals and learn something of the events that brought them here. These include Beth Barry, a ten-pound Pom; Vittoria, an Italian nurse who worked on the migrant ship ‘The Tin Galileo; Afifa, a soccer-loving Lebanese Muslim; Eliza, an early Irish farmer; Danke Ryan, representing the Australian Dutch community; Bardi, a Noongar woman who speaks about the Dreamtime and white settlement; Zhou, a Chinese girl who is desperate to fit in; and Anna Petrovana, a Russian superstar ballerina.

The cost for this incursion is $5 per student.

Kind Regards

Asiri Perera
